

Western Review to Aid Lunch Fund

MRS. LEROY ALDERSHOF

Round-Up Carnival

Throngs of children were on the spot to play the game booths when Sepulveda Elementary School held its recent Spring Round-up Carnival.

Each child was given a free ticket and Anna Marie Vaughn, a second grader, won the door prize. Children square dancers, the "Wagon Wheels" from Lomita, added color to the affair with their red and white polka dot outfits.

Eighth grade balloon booth collected funds for the graduation party.

The PTA executive board announced that a faculty luncheon is planned for the last day of school and a luncheon for outgoing and incoming officers set for sometime in June.

'Boots, Saddle Review' to Bring Out Talent

An all western variety show, "Boots and Saddle Revue" will bring lots of local professional and amateur talent here April 30 and May 1.

The big Western Revue will be presented by the Torrance Council of PTA, 7:30 p.m. at the Torrance High School Auditorium, 2200 West Carson.

Donations from the affair will go toward the PTA Milk and Lunch program. The fund is available to all in need for temporary or longer periods of time.

Tickets for the show are being handled by all of the Torrance PTA presidents. A 50 cent donation to provide an evening of top entertainment.

Included in the show will be the "Four Flats from Flavian," a barber shop quartet including Mrs. Roy Hickman, Robert Sabus, Mrs. Ed Stepp and William Clary. Shirley Henderson will direct an original play, "Bad Day at Buffalo Gulch," with Jim Miller, Jim Cassidy, Bert Richardson, Iver Christianson, Paul Crossman, Art Lester and Mrs. Jim Cassidy in the cast of characters.

Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, general chairman, will be assisted by a large committee of representatives of the Torrance PTA units in making the performance possible. Co-chairmen working with her are Mmes. O. Winn and Russell Bardick. Besides the Milk and Lunch Fund the Torrance Council has provided honorary life memberships totaling $1025 during 1958-59 period, provided scholarships for advanced work in many fields.

Stephen White Open House Announced
